

Reno Evening Gazette

Reno, Nevada

May 3, 1880

Man Killed by a Bull Dog

A very old man was attacked by a bull dog at Burtonville, Miss. He climbed to the top of the fence, but the beast jumped high enough to reach his legs and pulled him down. He defended himself as well as he could with his cane, but was finally killed by the dog.

[Burtonville, Miss. presumed Burnsville]