Neighbors pitching in to help Friends in need

BERKLEY--Mackenzie Madera was a sweet 5-year-old girl, eager to learn. Members of the Berkley Community School and Friends Helping Neighbors hope townspeople never forget this, Janet Denzer said. Denzer is the Berkley Community School early childhood coordinator. Both groups have teamed up to lead fund-raising efforts to defray the family's funeral expenses. Mackenzie was killed by strangulation on April 5 in Dighton after her neck became entangled in the...

Taunton Family sets table for Easter

TAUNTON -- It wasn't a lavish gift, yet for Sister Corline Cronan the simple act of generosity made her Easter holiday. Cronan, a longtime Taunton Family volunteer, was preparing for her organization's free Easter breakfast yesterday, when she noticed 200 paper goods -- plates and cups for use today -- sitting in the corner of Coyle and Cassidy High School. The gift, inscribed with a simple note reading, "In memory of Mackenzie..."

With message of comfort, hope little Mackenzie is laid to rest

SWANSEA -- Heaven needed an angel. That was the message of comfort and inspiration yesterday from a pastor at the Grace Gospel Church as the family of Mackenzie Madera laid her to rest. Last Thursday, Mackenzie Madera, 5, of Berkley, was killed when the chain attached to her uncle's dog became entangled around her neck. Mackenzie, left alone to play in her grandmother's yard, was unable to scream or fight her way free. She died at the Morton...

A city man who prosecutors intend to charge with vehicular homicide for the death of 17-year-old Anthony Giarmo was brought to court yesterday after being arrested on an unrelated cocaine charge. Richard Smith, 29, of 63 Prospect St., was scheduled to appear in court on April 4 to face charges stemming from a Feb. 25 car crash on Somerset Avenue in which Giarmo was killed and two other teen-agers were injured. Authorities, however, did not have Smith's correct...

In girl's death, a lesson on life

BERKLEY -- Before the students at Berkley Community School took part in their daily math and reading lessons yesterday, they had a far more difficult lesson to learn. Instead of starting the day off with the Pledge of Allegiance, their teachers told them of the death of their 5-year-old classmate Mackenzie Madera. Some students cried, others sat quietly. No one seemed to understand. "It's a difficult time for everyone," School...

'We called her a princess'

BERKLEY - Relatives describe 5-year-old Mackenzie Madera, who died tragically in her grandmother's yard in Dighton Thursday, as a cheerful "little lady" who loved animals. "She was a happy kid," her mother Jodie Mauricio said through tears. "She loved to play in the dirt and she loved animals. She always wanted a dog. She also loved to play with her Barbie dolls and to play dress..."

Girl dies, caught in dog's chain

DIGHTON -- A 5-year-old girl, known for her ever-present smile and love of animals, died yesterday afternoon when the chain of her uncle's pit bull became tangled around her neck, strangling her. According to family members, Mackenzie Madera -- left alone to play in her family's yard at 400 Lincoln Ave. -- walked into the play area of TK, a 3-year-old pit bull. As Mackenzie played with the dog -- something not unusual, family members said -- her neck...
